And when you said everybody knew that, a practicing pharmacist? 7 that was true of Florida Medicaid at that time? 7 A. I came to Medicaid in 1984 from a 8 A. It was. 8 9 9 Q. What was your understanding of what retail pharmacy operation. 10 discounts -- I'm sorry -- pharmacy providers were 10 Q. Where was that pharmacy operation 11 paying? And let me break that into two 11 located? A. Tallahassee, Florida. I had worked 12 12 auestions. 13 What was your understanding of what 13 prior to that several years in central Florida, Lakeland area, for Eckerd, which is a local chain 14 pharmacy providers were paying for single source 14 15 brand drugs, and, then secondly, what was your 15 in the south. CVS now owns them. 16 understanding of what pharmacy providers were 16 Q. Okay. 17 paying for multisource generics? 17 A. And in between those, I had a stint of 18 A. Single source brand drugs were 18 11 years with a pharmaceutical manufacturer. Q. Which manufacturer was that? 19 typically at 14 to 15 or even 16 percent discount 19 20 below the published AWP at that time. And 20 A. Hoffmann-La Roche. 21 generic products were all over the map; depended 21 Q. What did you do with Hoffmann-La Roche? on who you bought them from. That was before, I 22 A. I started out as a territory Page 267 Page 269 think, generic manufacturers had really started professional sales rep detailing doctors, then I spent a little time as a medical school rep at jacking up their published AWPs. So, you know, some were fairly accurate and others were 3 the Shands Teaching Hospital in Gainesville, and 4 then came back and became the originator of 4 inflated to greater or lesser extents. 5 5 government affairs for Hoffmann-La Roche in the Q. Okay. And if I'm not mistaken, 6 discounts of -- speaking about branded drugs of 6 state of Florida and spent most of my time 7 7 working on the Medicaid and Medicare programs and 14 to 16 percent off the reported AWP, that was 8 8 what OIG was informing HCFA as well? other state initiatives rather than calling on 9 9 A. That's correct. That's was their doctors. 10 focus. And, again, that's because, as we talked Q. Now, Mr. Wells, perhaps in the ability 11 earlier, that's where all your money goes, is for 11 to save us a little time, have you covered all of this -- your prior history, I assume, you've the branded products. You don't spend a lot of 12 12 covered in one of your prior depositions? 13 money on the generics. 13 14 Q. Right. And OIG -- so OIG was telling 14 A. Many times. HCFA that for branded drugs, discounts were in 15 15 Q. Okay. I don't believe that for the the range of 14 to 16 percent off reported AWPs; state of Idaho -- in fact, I'm almost certain 16 16 and that was your understanding separately from that your prior depositions were not cross-17 17

OIG was telling HCFA?

A. Well, I knew that already.

Q. You knew that. How did you know that?

A. I'm a pharmacist and I actually came to
